A Hundred Years to Come.

All within our graves shall sleep,

A hundred years to come;

And other men our streets will fill,

And other hands shall sing as gay,

And bright the sunbeams as to-day,

A hundred years to come.

A. TYHURST, Chairman Republican County Committee. Huntingdon, July 25, 1873.

The greater the liar the better the Leaguer.

If you want to take lessons in the school of villainy join the League.

A very silly hen cackling over a very small egg—ride the Globe's "How he takes it."

It costs four times as much to run the Poor House under League rule as it did under the administration of the honest people.

You can tell a Leaguer, if he be a pretending Republican, by his taking the Globe and cursing Hon. John Scott. These are infallible tests.

If you want to see the effects of League rule turn your eyes to the Poor House and Porter township. Tax-payers, how do you like the prospect?

Lookout for the "Campaign Lie." There is not a Leaguer in active sympathy with the League but will lie, and if necessary to make a point, swear to it.

WANTED.—A few more candidates, who can secure delegates that will be "all right." To such plenty of promises will be made. Apply to B. F. Douglass, Independent-Liberal-Republican-Deputy.

The Globe promises to publish Mr. Wharton's letter to Judge Dean. It will do no such thing—because the letter will not suit its purpose. Come up to the scratch; print it or take to the water!

Watch the man who adheres to the League. The man who will take his obligations and adhere to them will not be too good to commit any petty crime—stealing chickens and such. Watch them!

At the approaching delegate election the contest will be between the honest people and the infamous League.—Heretofore the fight has been the League vs. The People; now it is the People vs. League.

For weeks Woods and his Leaguers worked to secure the nomination of Hon. A. A. Barker, whom they had previously conspired to defeat. And for once in their lives they kept their promise. It is the only time on record.

Gov. Geary didn't believe that Guss was guilty of "those vile slanders!" Oh, no! That's too thin. Let's have the certificate, please. Geary is dead, you know, and there might be a lie out. Come, give us the "paps."

Let no man vote at the delegate election who voted for Speer and the Independent ticket last fall, unless he will swear to support the nominees of the regular Republican County Convention to be nominated on the 12th day of August next.

The Leaguers are hunting up new materials. They want men whose political status is not fully established. This is one of their means of success. Trust no man unless you know him to be above suspicion.

In organizing boards to hold the delegate elections do not allow any person on the board who voted for Speer and the Independent ticket. A Democrat would have fully as much right as such an one would have.

Turn out to the delegate elections and send suitable men to represent you in the Convention and you will get rid of the Thugs who have controlled your affairs for a number of years. All the evils of which you complain result from not attending the primary elections and sending reliable men to represent you.

Woods is working like a beaver to further his interests. He never fails to take care of number one. It is a strange thing that he makes everything, and that his faithful adherents generally get into the hands of the Sheriff. The exceptions to this rule are few.

A very destructive fire occurred in Baltimore, one Friday last, destroying upwards of a hundred buildings in the business portion of the city. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000, two-thirds of which is said to be covered by insurance.

Tax-payers, if you want to keep down taxation, go to the delegate elections and see that all your honest Republican friends go with you, and then vote only for tried men for delegates. The Leaguers will use money and all manner of shenanigans to induce them to support their interests.

HON. JOHN SCOTT.

The Altoona Sun, of the 18th instant, gave currency to the infamous and mendacious charges, trumped up by the Globe, against Hon. John Scott and others, to cover up the overwhelming defeat of its editor, in his efforts to convict Maj. H. S. Wharton of libel. Everybody in Huntingdon county understood the secret of this falsehood, but, it appears that our Altoona neighbors, whom we have always found to be honorable gentlemen, were not equally well informed, and they, consequently, gave credit to what is as base a fabrication as was ever concocted by the wicked brain of him who controls the columns of the Globe. But the Sun of the 25th instant makes the following handsome acknowledgment, which is in perfect keeping with the character of the gentleman who conducted it:

"Last week's issue of the Sun contained a reference to this gentleman [Hon. John Scott] copied from the Huntingdon Globe, which has elicited special complaint on the part of some of the warm personal friends of this gentleman above named. The article charges that Mr. Scott, and other radicals of that county, have been 'for years tampering with our courts and juries, until they have become bold enough to attempt the corruption of the judiciary itself.'"

"We plead total ignorance as to the facts in the charges here preferred. But as the Globe is published at the home of the accused, it was not unreasonable to presume that its charges were well founded; and if so, we protest that their exposure was highly proper. But if there is no foundation for these charges, or, if even the others are guilty and Mr. Scott innocent—as we are most justly assured by a gentleman of the strictest veracity, and one who claims to be conversant with all the facts, and who does not hesitate to promulgate the charges as wholly without foundation, and utterly false and malicious—then is the conduct of the Globe in the highest degree reprehensible."

"The charge is one of the most serious character, and can only be justified by proofs that are indisputable. Not only is the charge denied, but the proofs are emphatically refuted, by the friends of Senator Scott—facts which we are glad to learn and trust that they may be clearly established by subsequent developments. In the meantime it is as clearly the duty of the editor of the Globe to produce the proofs, or, failing to do this, acknowledge his error, and repair the wrong done not only to the accused BUT TO HIS BROTHER EDITORS IN THIS LEADING THEM INTO PARTICIPATION IN THE MISREPRESENTATION."

"However much we may oppose Senator Scott, or any other political opponent, we would scorn to accuse him falsely, even in politics, and much less in the conduct of his profession."

The italics and caps in the above are ours. We have but few comments to make. The author of the article in the Globe knew Mr. Scott was innocent, as are all the others charged, as the infant in its mother's arms. He also knew that few, if any, would believe so atrocious a charge at home, but it was written for a foreign market, where people could not be acquainted with the animus—an excuse for failing to convict Maj. Wharton. We again defy the Globe, or any of its cabal, to produce a single fact connected with the drawing of the jury which will implicate all, or any, of the parties named. Give us the evidence or stand convicted, for the thousandth time, of wilfully and maliciously endeavoring to fasten crime upon innocent parties.

The Blair County Radical hopes to hear no more of the jury business in Huntingdon county. As our neighbors properly regret that any cause should disturb the harmony of the Republican party in this county, they should also be careful not to encourage wrong by even indirectly censuring those who have honestly endeavored to correct it. Briefly, our jury troubles have been three: Some years ago the first jury drawn, under the system of Jury Commissioners, was set aside because the names of the jurors had been furnished to the Commissioners by other parties, especially in large numbers by two members of the bar, who swore to that fact themselves, and who are now intimate friends of the editor of the Globe. Subsequently another jury was set aside for some informal in the drawing by the second set of Jury Commissioners. Since then no complaint has been heard about juries until the present editor of the Globe failed in a prosecution he took into court, and was put into part of the costs. He then, to avenge himself, bought the Globe, and has been indiscriminately abusing Jury Commissioners, Jurors, Witnesses, Counsel, and the Court, and making false charges against men whose names were never even connected with any attempt to tamper with a panel of jurors. Even at the risk of ruffling our neighbors good humor we must endeavor to preserve the character of our Courts and Juries, and if a charge utterly false and malicious against reputable citizens is made by a defeated editor, it would be better to turn attention to him than to censure the whole county.

Two years ago an earnest effort was made to conciliate the Leaguers. The Convention made almost an equal divide of the nominations. Every anti-Leaguer in the county, as far as we know, voted the whole ticket. But did the League do so? Not a bit of it. On the other hand they tried their utmost to defeat Judge Clarkson and Gen. Lane. Their entire vote went cast against them. Last fall they went into the Convention and helped to nominate a ticket, and then turned round and set up an Independent ticket which they supported almost unanimously, and many of them voted against from Governor to Auditor. Why should we admit such men into our Convention? Mr. Speer is just as much entitled.

Autocrat Woods has been drawing the strings upon his subjects. He has been trying to make the "from three to eight" dance to his music. Some won't dance, though, and he can't help it. They think they have cheated and been cheated long enough.

Let every Republican in Huntingdon county, who desires the overthrow of the cabal controlled by Mr. Woods, give at least one day to getting out the honest people to the delegate elections. Go to work with a will and the League will no longer oppress you with taxes.

ATTEND THE DELEGATE ELECTIONS.

Every Republican voter should consider it his duty to attend the delegate elections. It is because good men neglect this duty that bad nominations are made, and then they grumble at the result of their own negligence when it is perhaps too late to remedy the evil. Take it in time and see that men are sent as delegates to the County Convention who will act honestly for the interests of the county and the party, and who cannot be either cajoled, bought or sold. This is especially important in the county this year. It is well understood that at least $5,000 of last year's expenses for the Poor House, were held back, not put into the accounts, and have been coming in for payment since.—If added to last year's expenses the cost of that institution, for the year, would foot up about $17,000. It has been under control of the secret League whose business it is to keep its members in office, and they are using every possible means to continue their power. They want men elected to suit them, to cover up the true state of accounts next year, and to get them on the ticket no exertions will be spared. Stone Creek farmers who could not sell their potatoes to the Poor House for 60 cents a bushel, when 75 cents was paid to a merchant who lived further from the railroad than they did, can understand why the expenses are so large, and why candidates can be made so plenty in order to carry delegates in Onondaga and Barre.

Other parts of the county can doubtless understand it also, and we hope that every tax-payer will take time enough to attend the delegate elections, and send men to the Convention upon whose action they can rely to secure the nomination of a ticket composed of none but good and true Republicans, men who consider their political allegiance as due to that party and to no other organization either inside or outside of it.

The following is from the Pittsburgh Commercial of the 25th, inst.: "The Democratic papers are gleefully announcing, on the authority of the Huntingdon Globe, that Hon. John Scott has been detected in efforts to pack the juries of that county. The Globe, however, was too wary to make any such charge. It insinuated that Mr. Wharton, an attorney of that county, must have used some occult means in the matter, or else so many of his personal friends would not have been on the jury list for the week in which an important case of Wharton's was expected to come up for trial; and then it dextrously coupled the names of Wharton and Scott as being in political accord or sympathy. This is all the basis the Democratic papers have for charging on Senator Scott for personal purity and professional integrity."

Huntingdon county was characterized by Senator McClure, in the debate on the Apportionment bill last winter, as a county in which every man is engaged in fight, in every other man, and in which there is no mutual agreement except in keeping up a chronic state of personal and political warfare. Bitter personalities are the ordinary weapons of this fight, and it is always safe to pay the smallest possible attention to the criminations and recriminations so freely indulged in by those who participate in it."

Mr. Woods is urging his adherents to make a desperate effort to secure the nomination of a candidate for Treasurer who will deposit in the Union Bank.—What interest has the Republican party in any bank? All we have to say is, that if any who control the majority of the stock, in the Union Bank, knew their own interests they would get rid of a couple of politicians, who are a dead weight, and who injure their business to the extent of thousands every year.

The Leaguers only want to run the Commissioners' office, the Treasury, and the Poor House! They have controlled the latter the last few years and the tax-payers have had to pay right smart. Will you give them the balance? If you do not desire to, you must attend the delegate elections and see that no Leaguers or persons in their interest are returned to the Convention. Spend an hour or two and save heavy taxation for a number of years to come.

The Leaguers, the "from three to eight" active men in each district," are being called into requisition to cheat the people. This cabal knows that it has no more chance of succeeding, honestly, than it has of flying, consequently it is concocting all manner of schemes to defraud the honest yeomanry. Beware! trust no man whose whereabouts, politically, is not defined beyond question.

We sometimes think that those who are selected to fill the various offices of the county—postmasters, and others—forget that they hold partisan positions. No man should be retained a day in office who will do nothing for his partisans. We are in favor of rewarding the workers and not the drones. It is the only way the party can be maintained.

Woods and his aids are very busy. They are constantly on the go. Are our people equally vigilant? If not, it were time that they were "stirring their stumps." Move at once! Get up honest, straightforward men for delegates, and have no dissensions among yourselves. Work harmoniously and all will be well.

WANTED.—From three to eight active men, in each district, to join a League intended to cheat their honest neighbors.—They must be able to "lie as fast as a horse can trot," and be good at shenanigans to boot. None other need apply. For further particulars apply to the office of the Head Centre, under cover of darkness.—Plenty of promises for pay.

A New Primary System.

A new system of choosing delegates has been adopted in Clarion county. The system seems to us to be a sound one, but in order that our readers may fully comprehend it and judge for themselves, we give it in full.

The Democratic voters of each election district shall meet at their respective election houses on the third Saturday of June in each year, at 2 o'clock, P. M., and shall elect a board of officers to hold the primary election, which board shall consist of one judge and two clerks, the majority of whom shall decide all questions arising in the holding of said primary election, and the polls shall be kept open until 6 o'clock and no longer.

No person shall be permitted to vote at such election except those who shall be known to be of good Democratic standing, or who shall agree before the said board to support the ticket nominated.

The said board be cast by ballot, printed or written, and each voter shall vote for a total of one person for each of the offices to be filled at the next subsequent general election, and shall also elect by ballot two delegates to carry the returns of said election to the convention to be held in Clarion.

At the close of said primary election the board shall proceed to cast up the vote polled and shall make out and seal up the returns, stating the number of votes for each candidate for nomination, which returns together with a list of the names of the voters at such election, shall be taken by the delegates to the county convention.

The said county convention shall consist of the delegates elected from each election district, and shall appoint a chairman of votes at the primary election, and two clerks to receive and cast up the votes for the candidates for nomination.

Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subside, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, caked breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, ear-ache, &c., upon the human frame, and of catarrhs, spavin, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-painful pain reliever. It cures all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago, &c., and all ailments of the head, neck, and throat. It cures all kinds of skin diseases, such as eczema, psoriasis, &c., and all ailments of the eyes, ears, nose, and throat. It cures all kinds of fevers, and all ailments of the stomach, and all ailments of the bowels, and all ailments of the bladder, and all ailments of the reproductive system. It cures all kinds of diseases, and all ailments of the human frame, and all ailments of the animal kingdom. It is a true and reliable remedy, and it is sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

Mr. Douglass, Independent-Democrat, or Liberal-Republican, we can't tell which, says the Scott men are very bad people. Indeed! The Scott men compose the Republican party. They comprise the honest people of this county. They have not bound themselves together, by horrid oaths, to support none but those of their own number for office. They support those who are meritorious without expecting to realize anything personally. They resent a Dictator or Autocrat.

Several copies of a weekly paper, styled The News Item, published by Messrs. Kerr & Dibert, at the corner of 36th and Butler streets, Pittsburgh, have been received at this office. It is a next little affair, and edited with much taste and ability. The junior member of the firm graduated in the Inquirer office, Bedford, while we were connected with it. He is a most excellent young man. We wish the project success. Drop in, Scott, when you come this way.

"Bring in your delegates," shouts Woods, "and we will see what we can do for you." He does not care a fig about you. He only wants your delegates. Why he has taken a solemn oath to support none but those who are members of his cabal. Are you stupid enough to believe a man who has made the same promise to everybody for years, and never fulfilled it save to those who were sworn confederates?

We invite the attention of the Bedford Gazette and McConnellsburg Democrat to the article, in this issue of the JOURNAL, from the Altoona Sun, making the amende honorable for giving currency to the malicious charges against several of our best citizens. Both the above first-named papers copied the comments of the Sun, and we hope they will be equally honorable.

The Altoona Tribune has set itself up as the special champion of the railroad monopolies. We are not surprised at this as it is located in a railroad town that depends wholly upon the railroad, but those of its readers, who are not in the employ of the monopoly will find rather tedious reading. How much stock has our neighbor in Fast Freight?

We are asked: "What does this fight for delegates mean?" We answer, that Wm. H. Woods desires to perpetuate a sworn, bad man who have banded together for their own advancement and the individual interest of Woods, at the expense of the people, and our object is to break it down.

Woods and Douglass are giving the annual promises. They are the special friends of all who are candidates. They promise everybody. And yet under their oath they cannot vote nor support anybody but members of the League. Any person believing their promises must be the veriest fool.

$5,000 of the Poor House Account of last year were not settled. Let the account might seem too enormous. This sum was paid out immediately after the settlement, and run into this year's account. It will foot up $17,000 this year in all probability. The League used the funds!

A New Primary System.

A new system of choosing delegates has been adopted in Clarion county. The system seems to us to be a sound one, but in order that our readers may fully comprehend it and judge for themselves, we give it in full.

The Democratic voters of each election district shall meet at their respective election houses on the third Saturday of June in each year, at 2 o'clock, P. M., and shall elect a board of officers to hold the primary election, which board shall consist of one judge and two clerks, the majority of whom shall decide all questions arising in the holding of said primary election, and the polls shall be kept open until 6 o'clock and no longer.

No person shall be permitted to vote at such election except those who shall be known to be of good Democratic standing, or who shall agree before the said board to support the ticket nominated.

The said board be cast by ballot, printed or written, and each voter shall vote for a total of one person for each of the offices to be filled at the next subsequent general election, and shall also elect by ballot two delegates to carry the returns of said election to the convention to be held in Clarion.

At the close of said primary election the board shall proceed to cast up the vote polled and shall make out and seal up the returns, stating the number of votes for each candidate for nomination, which returns together with a list of the names of the voters at such election, shall be taken by the delegates to the county convention.

The said county convention shall consist of the delegates elected from each election district, and shall appoint a chairman of votes at the primary election, and two clerks to receive and cast up the votes for the candidates for nomination.

Broad Top is still shortening its time between this place and Bedford. They run wickedly now.

Cor. Corman is off to the Bear Meadows on a sporting expedition. We wish him a splendid day.

Hon. Sim. n. Cameron took breakfast at the Morrison House, on Monday morning last, on his way to Bedford Springs.

Lytle will take a horn, if he has a chance, when he runs with the engine. But, then, he is no good blower, surely.

Three old cars were ignited and burned near McVeytown, on Wednesday last, detaining the Way Passenger train several hours.

Father Brown, of Dudley, we learn, realized thirteen hundred dollars out of his festival on the 4th of July. This can't be beaten very readily.

The benighted Indian, who was whipping his horse, in the Diamond, on last Thursday evening, should have been arrested for cruelty to animals.

Our neighbor, of the Tyrone Democrat, has taken unto himself a wife. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of the many."

Burley Jack Hiestand, of the Lancaster Examiner, and other kindred sports, passed through here the other day, on their return from Bedford Springs.

John J. Kerr, Esq., has been appointed post-master at Shirlingsburg vice Hon. Wm. B. Leas, resigned. This is a capital appointment. We congratulate our friend Kerr.

The first floor of Fisher & Sons' Plaster Mill, on Penn Street, gave way on Sunday evening last, and did considerable damage. No one was in the edifice at the time.

Goody, the queen of lady magazines, for August, is upon our table. It is a steadfast friend of the ladies. Price $3 per annum. L. A. Godey, Publisher, Philadelphia.

Beck, who frightened everybody last week, by tripping all at once is on his pins again, as their coach came as weak as a cat. Three Doctors, however, are enough to thin anybody out.

For selling liquor without license, John Lee, of Three Springs, is boarding with Sheriff Hooch. We expect to hear of several parties in this town being similarly situated before court.

Gov. Hartman passed through Huntingdon one evening last week. He didn't notify us to meet him at the depot, and, unfortunately, we remained in blissful ignorance of his contemplated visit.

Benjamin Longenecker, of Middle Woodbury township, Bedford county, aged about 70 years, fell dead in a pasture field where he had gone for his cows, on Monday evening, the 14th of July, inst.

A female passed by the other evening, with a severe attack of the "kangaroo hump." It was made up of old dresses, pillow-stuffs, stockings, papers, &c., and from its motion Paul thought that it was alive.

A German named Augustus Ginter, employed by Messrs. Miller & Blanchard, on the Lewisburg, Center and Tyrone Railroad, was killed by a stone falling from a derrick on his head, on Tuesday evening of last week.

When you are coming to Court next week, or the week following, don't forget to put a few dollars in your wallet for the printers. Of course we refer only to those who owe us, and they are a host. We need money badly.

The ladies of Warriorsmark and vicinity propose holding a Festival, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 7th, 8th and 9th, of August, (day and evening) the proceeds to go towards furnishing the M. E. Church. The public are invited.

Mr. Isaac Fisher has been amongst the mail bags ever since 1833, and yet he is, comparatively a poor man. Honesty is written all over him. We have heard of fellows picking up fortunes amongst the bags in one-tenth of this time. But, then, some people are so much luckier than others.

When a visitor to the Bedford Springs asks for better accommodations than has been received, the third rate hotel superintendent, who has mismanaged the establishment for almost a score of years, answers, "If you don't like your accommodations you can leave. We didn't send you for!"

Gov. Hartman was in attendance at the Commencement exercises of the State Agricultural College. This week he expects to make a tour through the anthracite coal regions, and thence to Saratoga, accompanied by Attorney General Dimmick. The party will return to the State Capitol about the 5th prox.

In Tyrone a terrible riot occurred on Monday afternoon. It was the occasion of a menagerie exhibition, and several employees of the Keystone Bridge Company got drunk in that local spot of liquor. The liquor being of a fighting quality, they commenced slashing around loose, beating policemen and unoffending citizens. At latest accounts several of the rioters have been landed in the Hollidaysburg jail.

On Sunday afternoon last a couple of young men were fooling, on the old bridge spanning the river at Fortstown, when one named Coulter, with an ordinary pen knife, at the other, named Conrad, which struck him and entered his groin to the depth of several inches. The wound is not dangerous however. This ought to be a lesson to those parties to be more careful in throwing their knives about.

Bathurst, he that drives Henry & Co's. team, has been boasting about the goodness of his mules. On Wednesday last they upset his wagon, dragged it three times around the stable, and cut up mullen generally. He thinks now they were only "foxing" to get a good chance on him. The only time a mule is perfectly safe is when about twenty-five cars have passed directly over it; but, then, this never happens.

If any body wants to get an idea how slowly things are done at Washington let him apply for something to one of the Bureau of the Patent Office for instance—and in nine out of ten cases, we should think, the applicant would die of old age, before it comes to hand. We have been waiting for some copies of record which we suppose will reach here several years after we have left for a better and more healthy climate.

It is related of a Pattonville, Bedford county friend—a widower, by the way, who has raised a family—while on a recent visit to Yellow Springs, Blair county, he was requested to assist an interesting widow lady to secure her ample crop. Our friend shouldered a cradle, and went at it with a will, and it was only with the utmost exertion that four stout young fellows, by alternating, could do anything with him. The widow, no doubt, thought that she would prefer him to the best piece of machinery she had ever heard of. We hope so. He has had much experience in cradling.

A two-year old child of ex-Sheriff Bathurst, of Mt. Union, was run over by a cart, on Friday, the 18th inst., and badly injured. It is recovering.

A few evenings since, while some young men or boys were passing an unoccupied house in the vicinity of "Manor Hill," their attention was attracted by the falling of some heavy substance upon the roof of an out-building close by. They paid but little attention to this at first, but as they advanced a little further, they came to cast a glance toward the house, when lo! to their astonishment a white object, of mammoth proportions, was seen floating in and to upon the porch. The boys thought an investigation of the matter entirely out of place, and, as a matter of course, they "got up and dashed." They verily believed they had seen the veritable "Old Nick." Faugh! there isn't any ghosts!

We have heretofore published the narrative of the reported murder of a child in Saxton, Bedford county, by one Harry May. Says the Hollidaysburg Register: "Harry May, until the last few months, was a resident of Duncansville, this county. Last winter whilst working in the shops in Altoona, in a quarrel with one of the workmen, he was struck with shovel on the head and so badly injured that it was supposed he would not recover. He, however, got well.

He then left him to lead a loose and irregular life. Since he left her we understand he has taken up with the woman who now shares his imprisonment. He is quite simple, and the proper place for him would be in the Lunatic Asylum."

Mr. S. Cresswell, of Petersburg, has a very fine Maltese cat, a great monster, that a short time since, made its appearance with a living member of the rat kind, which it took a great fancy. A basket was prepared for it when it spent hours fondling and caressing its unnatural love. The members of the family fed the cat to the great satisfaction of the cat.

The latter would leave the rat and go in search of prey, and on her return she would run and jump up with her fore feet upon the basket and mew most motherly and look for the rat. This lasted in the neighborhood of a week, but one morning the rat was gone and the cat was terribly depressed. It hunted for it for a long time and at last gave it up. It then tried to secure another and did, but this one would not be domesticated and she made short work of it by eating it.

Go to Henry & Co., and buy Delaines at 12 1/2 and 15 cents, which sell elsewhere at 25 cents.

THE BANKRUPTCY LAW.—The case of Lance Walker, recently tried in the United States Court, says the Philadelphia Ledger, is one proof of the efficiency of our bankruptcy laws. Here was a man who, after a tolerably fair start in business, seems to have determined to break with all the laws that govern society. The jury had found that he had concealed his property, or rather that of his partners and creditors, and wasted their money in an effort to get a divorce. It was small consolation to the merchants to know that the immunity to honest debtors does not apply to the case of a man who willfully and fraudulently conceals his assets, and leaves to them the poor consolation of a resort to law, which simply takes more money and puts the debtor under no additional penalty. Walker seems to possess an obstinacy of purpose in pursuit of his own ends, that applied to good objects, might command a high degree of success. For nearly two years he has preferred a jail to a compliance with the request of his creditors, and, in bankruptcy, and even his own counsel, to tell them what had become of his assets. In old times this would have ended in possibly sixty days imprisonment in our country prison and a discharge under the State insolvent laws. Now, he has stood the test of a jury trial, and the issue has been decided against him. At least one other such case stands for trial in the same court, but the very frequency of such proceedings shows that the United States bankrupt laws, fairly administered, enable honest debtors to get a discharge, and prevent dishonest men from trying to defeat the law and justice.

New Hats and Caps just arriving at Henry & Co's.

ATTACKED BY A PANTHER.—A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Commercial writes from Lock Haven as follows:

On Thursday last, (the 17th) a party of young women went out from Queen's Run to the mountain just back of the settlement, gathering whortleberries. One of them, Jerasha Bryan, advanced a little further into the woods than the others, when she was attacked by a huge panther. Her companions, hearing the brave scream, sought safety in flight, but Miss Bryan, finding escape impossible, determined to stand her ground, and, seizing a pine knot, gave her enemy battle. The contest was a close one for a few minutes, but human courage, judgment and coolness soon triumphed over brute strength, and the heroic woman soon had the satisfaction of laying the blood-thirsty monster dead at her feet.

Her garments were torn into shreds, and her face and arms badly scratched, but she walked home with a firm step and the light of triumph in her eye, and was able to give a good account of herself. The dead panther was soon afterwards found by the people of Queen's Run and proved on measurement to be six feet long, including long ears. Mr. Bryan, (or his son) of the neighborhood, as she well deserves to be. We doubt whether an instance can be found on record, of more cool, heroic bravery and wise discretion, developed by any woman, even in the most heroic and perilous days of Pennsylvania.

A MAN'S HEAD CUT OFF BY THE CANS.—On Wednesday morning last, a stranger attempted to board the second Tyrone Coal train, at the coal siding between this place and Mt. Grek, and in so doing, he was struck by the engine, and his head was cut off. The officer noticed the sudden cry, and, without a moment's hesitation jumped after him, his efforts to recapture the fugitive were somewhat impeded by the fact that he pitched headlong into the mud and stuck there. He so stuck that his arms were imbedded nearly up to the sockets in the tenacious mire. It was therefore impossible for him to bring his pistol into requisition. The prisoner took to the water cooler. The train was moving at the usual rate of speed.

As soon as the fact of the deputy sheriff was turned, the prisoner deliberately jumped foot foremost through the open window of the car. He alighted in a soft morass, and was not hurt, for he immediately picked himself up, and ran to the woods, where he hid. The officer noticed the sudden cry, and, without a moment's hesitation jumped after him, his efforts to recapture the fugitive were somewhat impeded by the fact that he pitched headlong into the mud and stuck there. He so stuck that his arms were imbedded nearly up to the sockets in the tenacious mire. It was therefore impossible for him to bring his pistol into requisition. A BEGGAR STEALS A GOLD WATCH.

Considerable excitement was created on Penn street, on Friday last, by the report that a beggar had stolen a gold watch, from the vest pocket of J. Wilson Greenland, Esq., in the absence of that gentleman. Mr. Greenland, on visiting the office of J. Simpson Affair, Esq., in the morning, was requested to assist in executing some engineering. He drew off his coat and vest, the latter containing the watch, and hung them on the children's porch, and replaced them with other clothing. The outer door of the office was locked when they withdrew from it. A short time after the departure of Mr. Africa and Mr. Greenland, a tramp represented himself, at the rear of the house, and requested something to eat. Mrs. Africa, who is a very charitable lady, and never permits any one to depart hungry, complied with his request, and while he was eating the members of the family were engaged in the kitchen and other apartments of the house. From the position the fugitive occupied at the door he could see Mr. Greenland's vest, on the rack, and no doubt the chain of the watch was protruding, so while the family were attending to their morning duties he deliberately appropriated the watch, and walked off to the porch. He did not return for an hour or two and when he did first miss the watch he was under the impression that some one of the boys had taken it. It was not until late in the day that his suspicions were aroused. He was then assured that the beggar had been the only one who had visited the house during the morning. Inquiry was made for the second but nothing could be learned of him save that he had gone down the railroad.

Chief of Police, Westbrook, took the 4:15 train and went to Mt. Union and posted the authorities and returned by the next train. About six o'clock in the evening the fellow was discovered coming down the town-path and a posse started to arrest him, but when he saw them coming, he jumped into a skiff and rowed across the river. While escaping some one called to him to halt and come ashore or he would shoot to which he replied "shoot and be damned." He escaped into the mountain. The watch was a very neat one and is valued at $150. People will be more careful for at least nine days as to whom they will admit into their houses.

THE BANKRUPTCY LAW.—The case of Lance Walker, recently tried in the United States Court, says the Philadelphia Ledger, is one proof of the efficiency of our bankruptcy laws. Here was a man who, after a tolerably fair start in business, seems to have determined to break with all the laws that govern society. The jury had found that he had concealed his property, or rather that of his partners and creditors, and wasted their money in an effort to get a divorce. It was small consolation to the merchants to know that the immunity to honest debtors does not apply to the case of a man who willfully and fraudulently conceals his assets, and leaves to them the poor consolation of a resort to law, which simply takes more money and puts the debtor under no additional penalty. Walker seems to possess an obstinacy of purpose in pursuit of his own ends, that applied to good objects, might command a high degree of success. For nearly two years he has preferred a jail to a compliance with the request of his creditors, and, in bankruptcy, and even his own counsel, to tell them what had become of his assets. In old times this would have ended in possibly sixty days imprisonment in our country prison and a discharge under the State insolvent laws. Now, he has stood the test of a jury trial, and the issue has been decided against him. At least one other such case stands for trial in the same court, but the very frequency of such proceedings shows that the United States bankrupt laws, fairly administered, enable honest debtors to get a discharge, and prevent dishonest men from trying to defeat the law and justice.

ATTACKED BY A PANTHER.—A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Commercial writes from Lock Haven as follows:

On Thursday last, (the 17th) a party of young women went out from Queen's Run to the mountain just back of the settlement, gathering whortleberries. One of them, Jerasha Bryan, advanced a little further into the woods than the others, when she was attacked by a huge panther. Her companions, hearing the brave scream, sought safety in flight, but Miss Bryan, finding escape impossible, determined to stand her ground, and, seizing a pine knot, gave her enemy battle. The contest was a close one for a few minutes, but human courage, judgment and coolness soon triumphed over brute strength, and the heroic woman soon had the satisfaction of laying the blood-thirsty monster dead at her feet.

Her garments were torn into shreds, and her face and arms badly scratched, but she walked home with a firm step and the light of triumph in her eye, and was able to give a good account of herself. The dead panther was soon afterwards found by the people of Queen's Run and proved on measurement to be six feet long, including long ears. Mr. Bryan, (or his son) of the neighborhood, as she well deserves to be. We doubt whether an instance can be found on record, of more cool, heroic bravery and wise discretion, developed by any woman, even in the most heroic and perilous days of Pennsylvania.

A MAN'S HEAD CUT OFF BY THE CANS.—On Wednesday morning last, a stranger attempted to board the second Tyrone Coal train, at the coal siding between this place and Mt. Grek, and in so doing, he was struck by the engine, and his head was cut off. The officer noticed the sudden cry, and, without a moment's hesitation jumped after him, his efforts to recapture the fugitive were somewhat impeded by the fact that he pitched headlong into the mud and stuck there. He so stuck that his arms were imbedded nearly up to the sockets in the tenacious mire. It was therefore impossible for him to bring his pistol into requisition. The prisoner took to the water cooler. The train was moving at the usual rate of speed.

Farm and Household.

How I Make Soap.

I keep my ashes dry, and when put in the hopper preparatory to making soap, I have from a half to one peck of unslacked lime put in with the ashes. Before putting the grease in, I swing the kettle off the fire and let it hang a few moments. If there is any potash in it, I take a shovel and take it out, for if there is much potash in it, it will not make good soap. I pack the ashes well, adding water enough to dampen them. Then I put three or four buckets of water on each day for two or three days, until I think it sufficiently soaked. And lastly, I pour on boiling water to run the lye off. As soon as I have enough run off to commence boiling, I put my kettle over the fire, and boil the lye as fast as it will boil, still adding more lye as it boils down. In this way I continue for a whole day. By evening it will probably be sufficiently strong to eat a feather passing it three times across the liquid. I now put my grease in (all I think it will eat) still boiling as fast it can without its running over. If it eats the grease all up I add more. I never leave the kettle hanging over the fire all night. In the morning if there are any scraps of grease that are not eaten up, I boil again for an hour or two, and if they do not dissolve I take them out. Then I take out a few spoonfuls of the soap and set it away a little while to cool. When cold, if there be no lye under it and it appears free from grease, I set my kettle off, and hang another to boil more lye. Managing in this way, I generally can make from sixteen to eighteen gallons of nice white soap in two days, and often in one day and a night. I think that by pursuing this plan, or a similar one, any one can make a strong, nice soap.

How to Manage a Farm.

The farmer who owns but little stock and keeps it fat, is richer than he is who, owning much, allows it to waste and become poor in the endeavor to keep more than his farm can carry. Much of the thrift and order about the farm lies with the children. However much the parents may strive, if the children are not interested in preserving order, if they have not constantly before them incentives to do so, one little dereliction will follow another, until in the end disorder will prevail, the farm will begin to run down, and it will be found that it costs more to bring it back twice than it would to have kept it intact at first. Whenever you are through with a tool or implement for the season, put it away in a secure place. The objection sometimes made that it takes so much room for storage, is not valid. There is on every farm plenty of loft room for the lighter tools, and many ways will suggest themselves for raising comparatively heavy ones, as plows and harrows, and a little time spent at the right time will be money in the end. Even mowers, harvesters and threshing machines occupy but little room if properly taken care of, and the exercise in doing so and putting them together again, often gives valuable lessons in the mechanics, and renders the operator thoroughly conversant with the workings of the machine itself. There is more in the care of little things than most people imagine, for if these are thoroughly looked after greater ones are not apt to suffer.

Treatment of Sprains.

Sprains are usually very painful, and are accompanied with a high degree of inflammation and soreness. The indications are to secure perfect rest of the injured part, and to reduce the inflammation. The inflammation may be reduced by cold wet compresses, renewed as often as they become warm. When the patient has a great deal of vitality and there is a high degree of inflammation, the injured part may be immersed in cold water, or a stream of cold water may be poured over it until the pain and soreness have been partially removed, when the cold compress should be applied. When there is much pain and tenderness and but little heat, hot fomentations followed by cold compresses are preferable. When the inflammation and soreness have subsided, friction is useful to promote absorption and strengthen the part. Great care should be exercised about using the injured part until the strength is restored, as it then requires but very little to strain it again. A second sprain is more difficult to cure than the first.

Keeping Cream.

Next in importance to having milk pure and sweet, and free from all animal odors, comes the matter of keeping the cream after it is taken off the milk. In the first place, the less milk there is with the cream at the time it is set in the cream jar the better. A great deal of carelessness is shown in this matter, for it is known that milk makes butter, while the cream only makes butter; and the more milk there is in the cream at churning time, the more cheesy flavored will be the butter, and, therefore, the more likely to spoil afterwards, unacceptably so. Really pure, good butter requires very little salt; while butter ordinarily made will soon spoil, unless well salted or kept covered with brine.

RECIPE TO CURE A FELON.—A tablespoon heaping full of the scrapings of an old powder horn (one that has been used with powder), a tablespoon heaping full of dried sage, and the same of dried rue, one gill of alcohol; simmer in a covered vessel for twenty minutes. Keep the poultice on for twelve hours and then apply a new one. These poultices will generally cure; but it sometimes requires four.

RECENT experiments indicate that the best temperature of the air, as well as of the cream, for rapid churning of butter, is from fifty-four degrees to fifty-five degrees, as generally taken. A cellar, with temperature regulated by means of a thermometer, seems most suitable for the purpose, especially in summer.
